Boys' Corn Club.

J. R. Robinson and H. R. Kirk, who have recently been chosen as principals of the two county High and Consolidated Schools and as county supervisors, will co-operate with the county superintendent in the Boys' Corn Club work.

A close and careful attempt will be made to branch out more extensively this year along this line. Every rural school boy in the county is urged to make an attempt. Last year's work alone raised the general yield of the State six bushels per acre.

Each contestant must be or have been enrolled in the public school and between 10 and 18 years of age.

Each member must raise an acre—not a fraction.

Each member may furnish his own seed corn.

The land must be measured and certified to—10,000 square feet, make one acre.

Plant as soon as suits the conditions after April 15.

All the boys of Madison county who desire to take part in the contest are urged to meet Mr. Robinson and Kirk in the county superintendent's office Saturday, April 19, at 2:30 p. m.

If further information is desired, address or call on Prof. John Noland, Richmond; Prof. J. R. Robinson, Waco; Prof. H. R. Kirk, Kirksville; Prof. Frank Montgomery, Berea.

Q. & C. Trains Now Run On Schedule Time.

Mr. T. C. Powell, Vice-President of the Queen & Crescent and Southern R. R., has advised his local representatives that the Queen & Crescent Route was running all passenger trains between Cincinnati and the South on regular schedule and all freight and express traffic, both car-load lots and less, between Cincinnati proper and the South without delay or confusion. Mr. Powell also said that between Louisville and the South there never had been any interruption to traffic via the Southern and Queen & Crescent and that all through traffic via Louisville is now being handled.

Must Be Fine Corn.

The Interior Journal quotes the sale of fifty barrels of corn at $30 per barrel. We always knew that they raised mighty fine corn down in old Lincoln but had no idea that it was as valuable as the price would indicate. This "sure" is a day of high prices.

Guaranteed to Stop Itching at Once

Eczema, Rash, Tetter, Dandruff Disappear by Using Remarkable Zemo.

By a 25c. BOTTLE TODAY AND PROVE IT

That itching that drives you nearly wild, that keeps you awake in agony all night long, that scalp itching, will vanish instantly by using the new remedy ZEMO. It is guaranteed.

ZEMO will surprise you as it has thousands of others by its results on fiery eczema, sores, rash, tetter, blotches, inflamed or irritated skin, pimples, rashes after shaving, all skin afflictions, sores, blotches, and itching scalp. It cures dandruff completely since dandruff is nothing but eczema of the scalp. ZEMO is wonderfully refreshing to the skin. It is a clean, antiseptic solution, not a paste, cream or ointment. The first application gives blessed relief. ZEMO has been imitated, but positively never equaled.

"It is impossible for me to do justice in recommending ZEMO, because words cannot express its wonderful achievements." R. A. Sterlin, Supt. Electrotype Dept., Sanders Engraving Co., St. Louis, Mo.

ZEMO is sold in 25c. sealed bottles and guaranteed in Richmond by H. L. Perry Druggist.

Died as He Gave the Masonic Grip.

That there is something worth while in the tie that binds nearly 40,000 Free Masons in Kentucky alone, was presented in a very pathetic way a few days ago, in the death chamber of A. B. Estridge, at Paint Lick. Mr. Estridge, who was a Mason, had, in his extreme illness, lain unconscious for many hours. When waking from his coma he found standing at his bedside his physician holding his hand with finger on his pulse, the sick man speechless, with a smile upon his ashy cheek, gave him the grip of Masonic recognition, and while holding that fraternal clasp, death's summons came, and his spirit was called to fellowship in the Eternal Lodge on High.

What is Masonry? Not only an institution which binds together jolly good fellows in health, but one that gives joy and comfort in the hour of death. What wonder that it is world-wide, and in age antedates every civil government existing in the world today.—J. N. S. in the Interior Journal.

Cleopatra to Be Here.

A Lexington paper says of it: The current attraction, "Cleopatra," a motion picture production in six reels, is affording more interest to the general theater-going public of Lexington than any other like attraction has ever offered. The work of Miss Helen Gardner as "Cleopatra," is fascinating beyond description and Cleopatra's character, as described by historians, could not be more effectively portrayed. Nor is the depiction lacking in scenic grandeur. One would naturally expect a riot of color in the Oriental settings which must necessarily surround the principals in the production and the magnificent tapestries, shawls and jewels evident in the picture, indicate what "Royal Egypt" must have been in the time of Cleopatra.

In Memoriam.

In remembrance of our loving wife and mother, Mrs. H. C. Jones, who died April 11, 1913.

One year ago today she died. And filled our hearts with pain. But she has gone where angels dwell, And she will live again.

Oh, mother dear, departed one, We look toward the skies. We mourn for you with sorrow'd hearts And sad tears in our eyes.

We shed sweet tears of memory, And fond affection true, We would not ask you to return, We'll try and come to you.

HYPERAND CHILDREN.

Wedding is Stopped.

Miss Alice Hensley, daughter of Mr. James Hensley, of Pittsburg, Ky., was taken in charge by Chief of Police Woodson McCord Monday, as she was on her way to Cincinnati to become the wife of James Hemet, of Buffalo, Ind.

The girl was a handsome brunette and appeared to be about 17 years old. She was taken in charge on advice from her father.—Winchester Sun.

In Loving Remembrance.

Of our dear father, Henry Kanatzer, who died March 21st, 1912, age 59 years. Sleep on, dear father.

Oh, how sweet to breathe thy name! In life we loved you dear.

In death we do the same. We often sit and think of you When we are all alone.

For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own.

He has gone from his dear children whom he willingly tolled for and loved as his life, Oh, God, how mysterious and strange are thy ways! To take from us this loved one in the best of his days. Sadly missed by his children.

WM. KANATZER.

To The Voters.

In this issue of the Climax, we take pleasure in referring to the candidacy of Mr. Clyde W. Raybourn for the office of jailer of Madison county. We consider it unnecessary for us to tell you who Mr. Raybourn is, for all people of Madison county already know full well that Mr. Raybourn is as "true a democrat as ever crossed the line." Not only is he a true democrat, but he is a man that the county of Madison will feel proud to have placed in the position which he seeks. Mr. Raybourn stands as one of the most honest and true democrats that ever flourished in the good days of this county; at the same time he is also known as a man of business integrity, which we believe will bring him success in the pursuit of the office which he seeks. Never before has he asked the good people of Madison to give him an office, and we believe that the office which he now seeks will be conducted with the care and efficiency which it should be if the voters of the county will elect him to the position.

State University News.

(By G. C. Wilson.)

The Mountain Club gave its annual dance Saturday night. The students of the mountains have one of the strongest clubs in the University. They always take active part in all college activities. The past season's basketball team was composed entirely of mountain boys. Also the Freshman debating team was chosen from boys of the mountains.

State played Michigan Saturday afternoon at baseball. The game was close up to the 7th inning, when the score stood 3 to 0 in favor of the home team. But, due to deficiency in the latter's pitching staff, the Michiganers got a start and finished the game with a score of 11 to 3 in their favor.

The Y. M. C. A. Cabinet for next year has been chosen and a great work has been planned.

It Pays to Advertise.

John Owsley Reid, of Stanford, advertised some duck eggs in the Interior Journal and sold 100 of them to a Yukon, Oklahoma, man, who had read the advertisement. Had he advertised in the Climax, he might have made sales in the Philippine Islands, the Fiji Islands and other far-away places. The Climax has readers from Cape Cod to Kalamazoo and then some.

The Morgan Fortune.

The most of the great fortune left by J. Pierpont Morgan will go to his widow and three children—Miss Anne Morgan, an unmarried daughter; J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., 40 years old and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, wife of the well-known New York lawyer. The fortune left by the great financier is said to approximate $250,000,000.

Reward For Boy.

My son, Jimmy Johnson, left home the 7th day of March, 1913. He is 14 years old, has brown hair, dark brown eyes, and weighs about 100 pounds. He wore a blue overall suit, a wine-colored sweater, brown cap and tan booties. I will pay a liberal reward for his return or reliable information leading thereto.

The Secret of Honest Values

A number of years ago, in looking over business conditions, we came to the conclusion that our greatest asset was not our stock in trade or cash in the bank, but our customers' good will, our reputation for good values and square dealing. We determined to make the name "Oldham" stand as a synonym for "QUALITY"—to stand back of our goods and to see that the goods we sold were right. In studying our sources of supply, we found that some makers did business that way too; and some did not. But the ones we could rely on were the ones who put their NAMES in their goods and said always "These are ours, we made them, they're right and we will stand behind them."
